

IDEA Infant Toddler Coordinators Association
Board Conference Call
July 1, 2002

IDEA Reauthorization – Sharon Walsh

The report generated by the President Commission on Excellence in Special Education went to the President today. Little is known about the final document other than what has been provided at public meeting. Discussion items may include: a) creating flexible funding, b) 0-21 seamless funding, c) State Department of Education administration of the Head Start programs, d) Floors in the Part C eligibility, e) at risk definition.

The final report will be put on line followed up by a print version and a CD with follow-up documentation. It will be sent out as part of the register for public comment.

Possible National Academy of Science report: regarding eligibility and prevalence

Discussion was held about taking official position on reauthorization issues, to be continued at the July 20th Board meeting.

We will be asked by DEC to issue a joint position paper. DEC supports current statutory language and giving states added flexibility
